

According to Sallie Shelton Thomas, Chris had breathing problems. She had been extremely overweight, but lost over 100 lbs. Sallie was in elementary school and Girls Scouts with Chris and became reacquainted at the Burbank United Methodist Church where Chris was Education Director and a member for many years. She was a wonderful, loving woman, married with two grown daughters.