

Bob worked in medicine after graduating from BHS. He became an inhalation therapist inspired by caring for his grandmother's emphysema. His passion was dog-sledding and he moved up to Oregon for a number of years to train and race his dog team. I believe his passion for sledding contributed to the break-up of his marriage. He was a type 1 diabetic and diabetes ultimately ended his life. (From Larry Marak)